Gratitude

HONORING SERVICE · CELEBRATING COMMUNITY · GIVING THANKS

Hello Friends,

November always gives me a little extra reason to stop and appreciate the people and things that mean the most to me. And I want to start by telling you how grateful I am for YOU! Whether we've worked together, stayed in touch over the years, or are just getting to know each other, I'm so thankful you're part of my world.

As an Army veteran myself, Veterans Day holds a special place in my heart. It's a time to honor those who have served, remember the sacrifices made, and appreciate the freedoms we enjoy. To my fellow veterans and military families, thank you for your service!

And of course, it's hunting season! I've already got my buck, and now I've got my sights set on a moose! As an outdoor girl at heart, I'm especially excited about this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. And I'm so grateful for my amazing team, who help me take great care of my clients every day and keep things running smoothly on those days I'm out chasing that moose!

We've also got some fun things coming up, including a special client appreciation event in early December! Think family photos just in time for Christmas cards, a little celebrating, and a chance to spend some time together. We'll share the details soon, so keep an eye out! And don't forget to read all the way through this month's edition to check out our November Giveaway and find out how to enter!

As we head into Thanksgiving, I hope you find plenty of reasons to smile, a little time to slow down, and lots of moments with the people you love.

Happy Thanksgiving, and thank you for being part of my life!
